There is one thing the republicans of the present congress have done which they did not promise in their platform. The country has been thoroughly informed as to the injustice and iniquity of the high tariff for protection and of the dangers of Federal interference with the election of the people's representatives.—Dade County Advocate.

Misses Nellie and Daisy Hurley came over from Butler Thursday, with their father but the weather was too damp for them to look around town much. In the afternoon in company with Jennie Brown they gave the Chief a pleasant call and we hope they enjoyed it as much as did the editor. Miss Nellie presented us with two fine peaches from their orchard in Butler, and then little Daisy, with a smile that went straight to our heart, presented as with the first bouquet that this office has yet received. We hope they may be over frequently.—Amoret Chief.

Miss Grace Scott met with a very serious and painful accident last Tuesday night in front of the residence of Jim Wise on Walnut street.
The plumbers who were putting in pipes neglected to place signal lights to warn pedestrians of the danger, and Miss Scott without any warning was precipitated into the ditch across the walk. Friends helped the unfortunate young lady to her home where her injuries were dressed by the family physician, and the young lady is at present getting along as nicely as could be expected under the circumstances.—Rich Hill Tribune.

It is astonishing the ignorance of the city Journals. The Republican copies and article from the St. Louis Star Sayings which characterizes "Judge DeArmond as late of the C.
S. A." While it would have been no discredit to him to have been a southern soldier, the germ of the matter is the ignorance of the Star Sayings in placing a prominent man in a position he never occupied. The Republican copied the article without correcting an error its editor must have known existed. Why is the city press so ignorant and the country press will publish an article they know to be false?—Nevada Democrat.

Henderson Miller and C. Peterson, prominent farmers of Walnut township, gave us a pleasant call on Tuesday.

W. H. Hamilton of Rich Hill who has been here for three weeks for the benefit of the water, tells us he is improving, and thinks he will soon recover. We hope so, Mr.
Hamilton has been paralyzed for several months. Mr. Hamilton is one of Bates county's best farmers and we would be glad to announce his recovery.—Eldorado Tribune.

We heard a republican say the other day on the street, that ten per cent money would break up any farmer; and yet that man would try to make himself believe that paying an average tax of 47 per cent on his clothing, shoes, hats, carpets, cutlery, harness, queensware, tinware—everything that he cannot himself produce, will help eventually to make him rich.—Cass Democrat.

Last Friday's Hume Telephone contains the following: A drummer traveling for Kansas City boot and shoe firm, came in from Amoret, the new town north of us, Saturday and informed a Telephone representative that Amoret is booming, and that he had sold a bill of goods to a gentleman going into business there amounting to $3,000. He also stated that the contracts had been let for the building of the Kansas City Nevada & Fort Smith railroad from that place sixty miles south, and that the road from Kansas City to Amoret is about completed. "Amoret is bound to make a good town," said he, "because she has vast coal fields as a resource, to back her."

Did you ever stop to think what a topsy turvy world this is anyhow?
While some are striving earnestly for justice, others are fleeing from it. One man is spending his hard earned money in taking some blushing damsel to the theater, or sending her fragrant bouquet, in hopes of winning her for his wife, while another is striving with might and main to get a divorce from the partner of his joys and sorrows, fully persuaded that he would rather bear his sorrows alone. One man saves his money to build a house and another is worrying because he can't find someone to purchase his residence for less than it cost. One man will go crazy because he is unable to accumulate largely of this world's goods, while another will lose his mind in worrying about how to keep what he has accumulated. Occasionally a man will escape all the diseases that the human family is heir to only to choke to death on a fish bone. Rather strange after all, isn't it?—Ex.

A drunken row occurred at house killed, by a pistol ball through his Hughes lies at his home in a critical condition with a bullet in his neck.

Nine or ten men and three women were in the house at the time, and when the row began the lights were put out and the shooting occurred in the dark. Seven men and three women were placed under arrest to wait the preliminary examination which takes place to-day.

Hendrickson's Rejoinder.

ROSIER, MO., SEPT. 6TH, 1890.

DEAR SIR—I have read with considerable surprise the charge against me in your last issue by "a respectable man" and thank you for the privilege accorded me to reply through your paper.

The charge is "That during harvest Mr. T. J. Hendrickson, candidate for representative on the Union Labor ticket had several hands working for him and that when they stopped to rest for a few minutes he would take out his watch and time them, and then dock them for the time lost, pay day."

To the charge I have this to say: I did have several hands working for me during harvest, but as to timing them when they rested or docking them on pay day I did no such thing last harvest nor at any other time.

I am glad to know that the party making the charge is "a respectable man." Now I want to say to "a respectable man" that he had better be careful in the future or else he may have a suit for libel on his hands, and I hope that you will not publish any more charges against me unless they come from "a respectable man." Whoever tells a falsehood against me if he is "a respectable man," must expect to take the consequences. I have no fears as to the truth about my record. I am not fighting any man, my fight is against parties and unjust systems.

I refer you to John M. Core, who worked for me several months; Chas.
M. Core, who worked more or less for me during four years; L. A.
Gothers worked for me two years.
They all quit working for me only when they were ready to marry, and are now residing here on good farms of their own. Sylvester Gothers worked for me one year and then went east and married. Wm. Gothers worked for me three years, then went east because he could not stand our hot summers. Any of these men can tell you how I treat my hired help; the fact that I have always kept my hands a long time proves that they were well treated.
Hoping that no more charges will be made during this campaign by any of the parties, I remain yours as ever.

T. J. HENDRICKSON.

ROSIER, MO., SEPT. 6TH, 1890.

To all whom it may concern: I wish to say that I have been in the employ of T. J. Hendrickson for the last ten months. During that time I have lost a number of days I have lost several days each month on account of sickness and my own business. I have kept account of the time I worked, Mr. Hendrickson kept no account of it and in all of our settlements he has accepted my account of time without a word of objection. We have had no difficulty with each other, neither have I ever heard of any difficulty between Hendrickson and any of his hands.

The charges in the Times by "a respectable man" are false, and are only made to injure the union labor party.
